You're in charge of all ground operations in this modern-day, high tech wargame! Choose the role of battalion or regimental commander as you engage in over 30 offensive and defensive scenarios that feature battalion and brigade sized actions including company and platoon unit markers. Realistic detail allows you to fine tune assaults by splitting the units down to individual vehicles and infantry teams or squads. The troop movements and interaction of infantry and armored units are played out in great detail. You control the battle, position your units, give tactical orders, assign priority targets, and set minimum and maximum engagement ranges. If the battle gets too hot, call in for artillery and air strikes!

Key Features

- Over 60 types of modern weapons systems, US and Soviet style
- Compete on network, LAN or against the computer
- Modify artillery, air support and major weapons systems
- On-line unit information, including digitized photographs
- Design your own battles with the scenario creator
- Realistic sound effects for all weapons
